

MARKET QUOTATIONS

GOOD WEATHER AND NEWS HARD ON CORN

Chicago, July 19.—Cheerful war news and favorable weather gave a decided advantage today to the bears in corn. Liberal receipts tended also to pull down prices. Profit taking by shorts brought about a rally, but the effect failed to last. Opening prices, which varied from unchanged figures to 1/4c lower, with August at 1.55 1/2 to 1.56 1/2, were followed by a moderate upturn and then by material breaks all around.

Fresh surpluses by the entire allies forced sharp additional breaks later. The close was unsettled, 2 1/2 to 3 1/2c net lower, with August at 1.52 1/2 to 1.53 1/2, and September at 1.53 1/2 to 1.54 1/2.

Prices weakened without strength in Winnipeg, however, acted as something of an offset. After opening unchanged to 1/4c lower, with August at 72 to 72 1/2, the market hardened temporarily, but later underwent a general ease.

Prospects in the grain market were gloomy by provisions. Sellers were scarce.

UNSETTLED TREND SHOWN BY STOCKS

New York, July 19.—Reactions of 1 to 3 points in various equities, oils, tobaccos and other prominent issues created moderate unsettledness early today on the stock market. Incidentally Paris fell back 2 points and representative rails lagged. Dealings diminished to a pronounced extent with the approach of midday, the market then manifesting further irregularity on the strength of New Haven and a few specialties, notably Sumatra tobacco, with recurrent pressure in steels. Liberty 3 1/2s sold at 99.60 to 99.64; 4 1/2s at 94.06 to 94.48 and 4 1/4s at 95.35 to 95.44.

YANKS AND FRENCH SWEEP ON IN DRIVE

line westward in the Rot and Courtenay woods, retaken Moulin d'Arde and improved the line at Bouilly. The capture of four cannon, machine guns and 400 prisoners in these operations is reported.

There is no mention in the official reports of fighting along the Marne east of Chateau Thierry or east of Rheims in the Champagne sector.

Advance Six Miles.

The allies plunge against the German line south of the Aisne, so far as definitely known, has advanced to an extreme depth of nearly six miles, the deepest penetration being at Bazancourt, on the western bank of the Crise river, southeast of Soissons.

Foes' Roads Cut.

The railroads leading south from Soissons to Chateau Thierry is thus under the direct fire of the allied artillery, while the railroad leading from Compiègne to Longpont has been cut. Further south the allies have reached Chouilly, which is within seven miles of Nanteuil Notre Dame, on the only other line of railroad upon which the Germans can rely for supplies for their forces along the Marne from Chateau Thierry to Dormans. Thus the railroad communications of the enemy are placed in extreme jeopardy.

Yanks Advance Six Miles.

The allied blow was as effective as an offensive as it was a move to lessen the pressure southwest of Rheims and along the Marne. South of the Aisne, the Americans advanced six miles to within a mile of Soissons. At other points the situation was almost as great and the average advance is between three and four miles, according to latest advices received in Paris. This compares most favorably with the German progress in three days on both sides of Rheims.

Important strategic positions between the Aisne and the Marne and more than twenty villages are now occupied by the French and Americans. The allies reached and advanced beyond the line of Belleau, Courchamps Chouilly, Villers-Helon, Chaudun and the heights dominating Soissons. The first attack carried the French and Americans to their third objectives and, as the German resistance had not stiffened greatly, another attack was begun immediately and the allies are still surging forward.

So rapid has the allied advance southwest of Soissons been that cavalry was thrown into the fray. Field guns and machine guns were brought up rapidly, and added by many tanks, did effective execution in the enemy ranks. Northwest of Chateau Thierry, American operations in the evening had their headquarters on ground held by the Germans in the morning. Immense stores were taken in the Soissons region. Even airplanes could not be gotten out of the way.

Soissons Useless to Germans.

Soissons now is useless to the Germans as a base of operations. Rheims is safe apparently for the time being, and a continued advance between the Aisne and Marne will compel the German crown prince to withdraw his armies along the Marne. Even without further advance, the German position in the triangle is imperiled. More allied gains and the enemy will be in danger of losing many troops, to say nothing of great quantities of supplies and guns. Berlin has not reported fully on the fighting. Its brief statement last night said that the allied attack had resulted in the capture of "some ground." It added that German reserves had been thrown into the conflict.
